SUMMARY. The California Energy Commission (“Energy Commission”) requests that the California Alternative Energy and Advanced Transportation Financing Authority (“CAEATFA”) enter into a Financial Assistance Agreement with Pacific Ethanol Stockton, LLC (“PES” or the “Participant”) for an amount not to exceed $2,000,000, pursuant to CAEATFA’s Interagency Agreement (“IA”) with the Energy Commission to assist in administering the California Ethanol Producers Incentive Program (“CEPIP”).¹

BACKGROUND ON CEPIP. Assembly Bill 118² created the Alternative and Renewable Fuel and Vehicle Technology Program. The statute, amended by Assembly Bill 109,³ authorizes the Energy Commission to develop and deploy alternative renewable fuels and advanced transportation technologies to help enact the State’s energy and climate change policies and energy security diversification. The Energy Commission has an annual program budget of approximately $100 million and provides financial support for numerous programs including CEPIP. CEPIP is funded with an initial $6 million, and funding may increase to $15 million at the discretion of the Energy Commission.

CEPIP provides operators of existing corn ethanol production plants in California with temporary financial assistance, as funding is available, during periods of difficult economic operating conditions that are repayable under specifically identified favorable market conditions. The program is also designed to stimulate operation improvements at existing ethanol facilities and the use of advanced process technology to convert cellulose and other low carbon feed stocks.

The objectives of CEPIP are to increase statewide biofuel production; retain and create California jobs; and reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

The Energy Commission and CAEATFA have entered into an IA to establish program, administrative, and financial structures for the implementation of a successful CEPIP. Pursuant to this IA, the Energy Commission and CAEATFA will each enter into separate but complementary legal agreements with eligible CEPIP Participants approved by the Energy Commission.

On a quarterly basis, and upon timely submittal of an invoice, the Energy Commission will compensate CAEATFA for its costs associated with its tasks and deliverables specified in the IA.

Energy Commission’s Role Under CEPIP. Under the IA, it is the sole responsibility of the Energy Commission to establish and manage the CEPIP Participant Agreement eligibility and terms and conditions for the incentive payments to, and reimbursements from, CEPIP Participants. The Energy Commission will monitor the Ethanol Crush Spread (“ECS”)⁴ and evaluate CEPIP Participant certification, verification, and reporting, and will be the ultimate custodian for all records concerning CEPIP Participant compliance activities and transactions.

CAEATFA’s Role Under CEPIP. Upon the request from the Energy Commission and subsequent to CAEATFA Board approval, CAEATFA will execute a Financial Assistance Agreement with the eligible CEPIP Participant to establish the terms and conditions of the payments and reimbursements under CEPIP. The Financial Assistance Agreement identifies the terms under which CAEATFA will make payments and request reimbursements from CEPIP Participants as calculated and determined by the Energy Commission.

THE PROJECT. Pacific Ethanol Stockton, LLC began production in December 2010. The Energy Commission has determined that PES has the capacity to produce up to 60 million gallons of ethanol per year while providing both short- and long- term jobs and economic benefit critical to this area of the state.

LEGAL STATUS QUESTIONNAIRE. Staff reviewed the Participant’s responses to the questions contained in CAEATFA’s Legal Status Questionnaire. The responses did not disclose any information that raises questions concerning the financial viability or legal integrity of this Participant.
