STAFF SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

Art Center College of Design (“Art Center”)

May 29, 2008

Resolution Number: 253

I. PURPOSE OF FINANCING: Art Center seeks to refinance a taxable bank loan. In addition, Art Center plans to construct and complete several renovation projects on the Main Campus and the South Campus. These projects will provide ongoing services in more spacious surroundings, with room to meet current and future expansion needs.

Refinancing existing debt..... $6,356,220

Term Loan..... 6,356,220

The taxable bank loan was used to construct classrooms, galleries, studio spaces, administrative offices and a garden on the South Campus. The original loan amount was $9 million with fixed interest rate of 5.6% and had a final maturity of June 1, 2013. The project has been completed.

Projects ..... 13,183,689

Main Campus Project..... 6,733,689

Art Center plans to update and renovate the Ellwood Building and Sinclair Garden Pavilion and related appurtenant facilities, administrative offices and parking facilities. The Ellwood structure, the primary building on the Main Campus, is a 217,000 square foot structure built on 175 acres, and is home to Art Center’s 1,400 full time undergraduate students and also houses some of the graduate programs, as well as administrative offices. The City has recognized the building’s design as a local historic monument. The Sinclair Garden Pavilion offers students a place to gather, socialize, and exchange ideas. The site provides a flexible gallery space, a small kitchen, and open-air, amphitheater-type seating.

Environmental Benefits:

The planned projects will ensure that the main building of the Hillside campus is maintained to ensure its long life. As with all Art Center projects, Art Center will maintain a mandate of sustainability by using recyclable materials and passive-solar energy sources. The roof of the Sinclair Garden Pavilion will have solar cells to provide power for heating the facility. While it is difficult to totally mitigate the need for parking on the Hillside Campus, which exists in a residential neighborhood with almost no public transportation alternatives to the automobile, Art Center is reluctant to build a parking structure. A Grasspave solution will allow Art Center to do three things: act as an erosion mitigation measure on its hillside, provide handicapped access to parking and other public places on the campus, and allow parking on non-paved surfaces when necessary without destroying the lawn.

Design Resource Center Project..... $3,450,000
 The Design Resource Center (DRC) will be erected next to the Ellwood building on the Hillside Campus. The DRC will combine a modern library and a state of the art studio and prototyping space. Construction and renovation of the $50 million DRC is not planned until at least 2010, and will be contingent on a successful fundraising campaign. Bond proceeds will be used for the preparation of schematic and design development drawings.

South Campus Project..... 3,000,000
 Art Center will improve, install, renovate, rehabilitate, construct, furnish and equip various areas of the existing building, including the lower mezzanine and basement areas in which will be constructed conference rooms, classrooms, a multi-media presentation space, open studio space, storage, restroom and show facilities primarily for the College's graduate programs.

Environmental Benefits:

Art Center's original renovation of this facility (part of which was financed by the existing debt now being refinanced) resulted in the first LEED rated institutional building in Pasadena, California. To maintain the LEED rating, the planned project includes shower facilities to encourage the use of bicycles and all furnishings and materials are made from recycled materials. Additionally, the installation of a new electrical power grid will reduce energy consumption and provide new ability to control the skylights in the building which will also contribute to a reduction in solar heat gain affecting energy costs.

Financing costs..... 460,091

Costs of Issuance..... $400,000
 Letter of Credit..... $60,091

TOTAL USES OF FUNDS ..... $20,000,000

Financing Structure:

- Negotiated public offering
- General obligation pledge
- Letter of credit anticipated from Allied Irish Bank through 2011
- Variable rate
- 32-year term, final maturity 2040
- Expected rating: Moody's rating of Aa2 based on letter of credit

Financial Discussion:

Art Center appears to continue posting positive operating results, which appear to be supported by growth in tuition revenue over the review period.

Art Center reports that it relies on tuition as a primary source of its revenue. According to the audited financials provided by Art Center, in FY 2006, tuition revenue accounted for 84.3% of total revenues. Other revenue sources include investment income, and private gifts and grants, providing Art Center with a diversified revenue base. Total revenues for FY 2006 totaled approximately $62.2 million and increased approximately 8.0% from FY 2004.

Operating expenses totaled $63.5 million in FY 2006, increasing by $5.6 million or 9.6% as compared to the prior fiscal year. This increase in operating expenses was due to a spike in student enrollment in FY 2006.

Art Center's balance sheet also appears to continue growing with good liquidity, minimal debt and a solid debt service coverage.

Unrestricted net assets appear to have increased approximately 7.8% over the review period. Art Center reports that its cash and cash equivalents decreased from approximately $7.4 million in FY 2004 to approximately $4.4 million in FY 2006 due to the use of cash for construction and timing of reimbursement. Debt service coverage is currently a solid 2.32x and with the proposed new debt of $20 million will remain solid at 1.77x. Debt to expendable net assets ratio will increase slightly from a 0.45x to 0.79x remaining at an acceptable level.
