

MARKED BY COVID

"All the News
That's Fit to Print"

The New York Times

Late Edition

Today, morning clouds giving way to sunshine by the afternoon, high 65. Tonight, cloudy, low 54. Tomorrow, clouds giving way to sunshine, high 70. Weather map is on Page 23.

VOL. CLXIX ... No. 58,703

© 2020 The New York Times Company

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, MAY 24, 2020

$6.00

U.S. DEATHS NEAR 100,000, AN INCALCULABLE LOSS

They Were Not Simply
Names on a List.
They Were Us.

real jokester • Michael Sorkin, 71, New York City, champion of social justice through architecture • George Valentine, 66, Washington, D.C., lawyer who mentored others • James Quigley, 77, Chicago, rebel of the family • Sherman Pittman, 61, Chicago, dedicated his life jazz trumpet virtuoso • Cristina, 64, New York City, downtown New York singer with a cult following • Robert H. Westphal, 75, Fond du Lac, Wis., statesman in the construction industry • Clair Dunlap, 89, Washington, pilot still teaching people to fly at 88 •

Bailargeon, 72, Dennisport, Mass., true outdoorsman • Viraf Darukhanawala, 77, Hoffman Estates, Ill., worker at O'Hare International Airport • Chester Dwulet, 68, Burlington, Mass., proud Union Ironworker of Local 7 for 45 years • John Timothy Barr, 76, spirit • Jack Butler, 78, Indiana, lived in the house he grew up in • Susan Grey Hopp Crofoot, 97, Westwood, N.J., took great joy in writing little ditties under her pen name, Penelope Pen-wiper • James David Gewirtzman, 72, New City, N.Y., spent some of his han-

Il, 69, Fremont, Ohio, known throughout Ohio for his knowledge of local history • Harley E. Acker, 79, Troupsburg, N.Y., discovered his true calling when he started driving a school bus • Ar-lola Rawls, 81, Chicago, caretaker of her neighborhood • Roger Liddell, 65,

As the country nears a grim milestone of 100,000 deaths attributed to the virus, The New York Times scoured obituaries and death notices of the victims. The 1,000 people here reflect just 1 percent of the toll. None were mere numbers.

Patricia Dowd, 57, San Jose, Calif., auditor in Silicon Valley • Marion Krueger, 85, Kirkland, Wash., great-grandmother with an easy laugh • Jermaine Ferro, 77, Lee County, Fla., wife with little time to enjoy a new marriage • Cornelius Lawyer, 84, Bellevue, Wash., sharecropper's son • Loretta Mendoza Dionisio, 68, Los Angeles, cancer survivor born in the Phillippines, leader in Florida Title Events • Noel Sinkiat, 64, Olney, Md., nurse planning for retirement • Thomas E. Anglin, 85, Cumming, Ga., created many wonderful memories for his family • Robert Manley Argo Jr., 75, South Bay, Calif., member of Del Amo Flyers • Michael McKinnell, 84, Beverly, Mass., architect of Boston's monumental City Hall • Huguette Dorsey, 94, Somerville, N.J., coached several championship-winning junior high girls basketball teams • Lynne Sierra, 68, Roselle, Ill., grandmother who was always full of ideas • Louvenia Henderson, 44, Tonawanda, N.Y., proud single mother of three • Carol Sue Rubin, 69, West Bloomfield, Mich., loved travel, mahjong and crossword puzzles • Madeline Wolfe, 69,

Quorum 30, New York City, emergency room doctor who died in husband's arms • Sterling E. Matthews, 60, Midlothian, Va., cancer survivor who served as a deacon • Alby Kass, 89, California, lead singer of a Yiddish folk group • Roger Eckart, 78, Indiana, retired firefighter and old-school barber • Martin Douglas, 71, New York City, maestro of a steel-pan band • Daniel Spector, 68, Memphis, mentor to other Memphis artists • Mary Minervini, 91, Oak Lawn, Ill., sign-language interpreter • Salomon S. Podgursky, 84, Morristown, N.J., loved to figure out how things worked • Dale E. Thurman, 65, Lexington, Ky., tailor known for his exacting work and strong opinions • Ellis Marsalis, 85, New Orleans, jazz pianist and leader of a quartet came from the Park East School • Lucent Lioni, 60, New York City, Met Opera violist and youth orchestra conductor • Ann Youngerman Smoler, 87, New York City, had a passion for social justice • Thomas Waters, 56, New York City, armed the affordable housing movement with data and analysis • Luke Workoff, 33, Huntington, N.Y., his relentless passion was for his family and friends • José Díaz-Ayala, 38, Palm Beach, Fla., served with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office for 14 years • Antonio Nieves, 73, Chicago, always seemed to be busy with some home project • Jeanne Hammond Byrnes, 97, Danbury, Conn., received numerous awards for her accounting skills • Alice Coopersmith, 89, Memphis, Tenn., lived in the first house of the Northmen • Joseph F. Kelly, 81, New York City, did two tours through the Panama Canal to Antarctica • John Prine, 73, Nashville, country-folk singer who was a favorite of Bob Dylan • Perry Buchalter, 63, Florida, quiet hero • Monica Maley, 74, Rehoboth Beach, Del., loved animals, had dogs and cats, and rode horses • Thomas Tarbell Russell, 83, Longmeadow, Mass., mentored by the computer science pioneer Grace Hopper • Ruth Skapinok, 85, Roseville, Calif., backyard birds were known to eat from her hand • Faralyn Havir, 92, Minnesota, her favorite thing was meeting new people • Tor-rin Jamal Howard, 26, Waterbury, Conn., gentle giant, athlete and musician • John O'Brien, 84, New York

City, acting teacher • Charles Constantino, 86, Menlo Park, N.J., worked 40 years for The New York Times • Ben Doherty, 83, Boston, stockbroker who founded Doherty Financial Services • John Horton Conway, 82, New Brunswick, N.J., mathematician known as the "magical genius" • Stanley Chera, 77, New York City, developer and friend of the president • Robby Browne, 72, New York City, Realtor and philanthropist who socialized with celebrities • Wynn Handman, 91, New York City, acting teacher • Adam Kovacs, 72, New York City, cartoonist and an expert on the subject of the S.W. Brown • Stan, funeral

Covid-19 is a modern tragedy

- 1,127,152 counted USA deaths from SARS-CoV-2
- Millions disabled by long Covid
- Medically vulnerable isolated
- U.S. life expectancy in freefall
- Hundreds of thousands of children orphaned

Marked By Covid shines our lights to heal the grief of a nation.

Founded by Covid grievers

 Kristin Urquiza #MarkedByCOVID 🌻🇺🇸🇲🇽🇪🇺🇩🇪🇦🇪 @kdurquiza · Jun 10
June 10, 2020. My Dad was healthy. My Mom was healthy.

On June 11, he had Covid. The future I imagined faded as I was restrained to a front-row seat of this uneven catastrophe, trapped by class. He died in 20 days, the Kristin I was died with him.

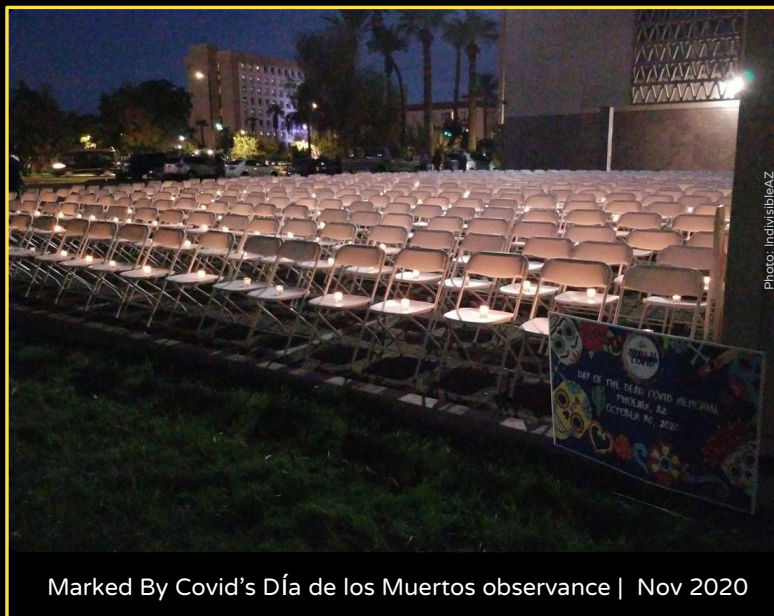

@markedbycovid #MarkTheDate

Kristin "marks the date" on Twitter | June 10, 2021

Our goal is to remember every life lost to Covid-19

Marked By Covid's Día de los Muertos observance | Nov 2020

MARKED BY COVID'S
COVID MEMORIAL DAY

MARKED BY COVID'S
NATIONAL COVID MEMORIAL

MARKED BY COVID'S
MEMORIAL MATRIX

MARKED BY COVID'S
COVID MEMORIAL DAY

Widespread bipartisan support for Covid Memorial Day

GREG STANTON
U.S. REPRESENTATIVE
ARIZONA'S 4TH DISTRICT

Stanton Renews Push for COVID-19 Memorial Day

March 6, 2023

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Rep. Greg Stanton reintroduced his bipartisan House resolution commemorating the first Monday in March as “COVID-19 Victims and Survivors Memorial Day.” The day would memorialize those lost to the virus and recognize the suffering who still carry unknown health side effects.

Stanton has partnered with Marked by COVID, an advocacy organization founded by two Arizona women who lost parents to the virus, to build awareness around the effort. The group will host its Annual Covid Memorial Day Virtual Vigil at 6 p.m. Arizona time this evening. [\[LINK to view\]](#)

ED MARKEY
UNITED STATES SENATOR FOR MASSACHUSETTS

MARCH 07, 2023

SENATORS MARKEY AND WARREN REINTRODUCE RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING THOSE LOST TO COVID-19

Resolution would designate the first Monday of March as “COVID-19 Victims Memorial Day”

Washington (March 7, 2023) - Senators Edward J. Markey (D-Mass.) and Elizabeth Warren (D-Mass.) reintroduced a resolution to memorialize those lost to COVID-19. The resolution would designate the first Monday in March as “COVID-19 Victims Memorial Day.” The resolution was first introduced in August of 2021.

MARKED BY COVID'S NATIONAL COVID MEMORIAL

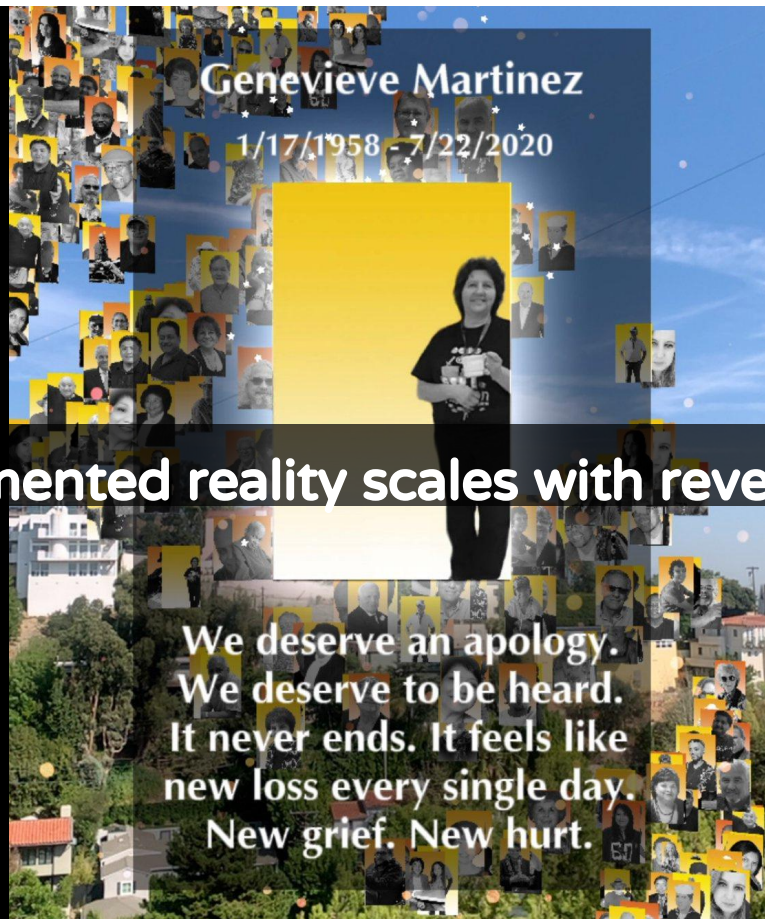

We held hundreds of online focus groups to design a memorial that is everywhere for everyone

The National Covid Memorial Augmented Reality filter is designed to couple with a physical space.

Augmented reality scales with reverence

We highlight marginalized voices and give grievors the last word.

The AR remembrances are powered by Marked By Covid's database and are accessible from any National Covid Memorial marker.

Snapchat helped bring our dream to life

NATIONAL COVID MEMORIAL DEBUT
Día de los Muertos | Oct 2022

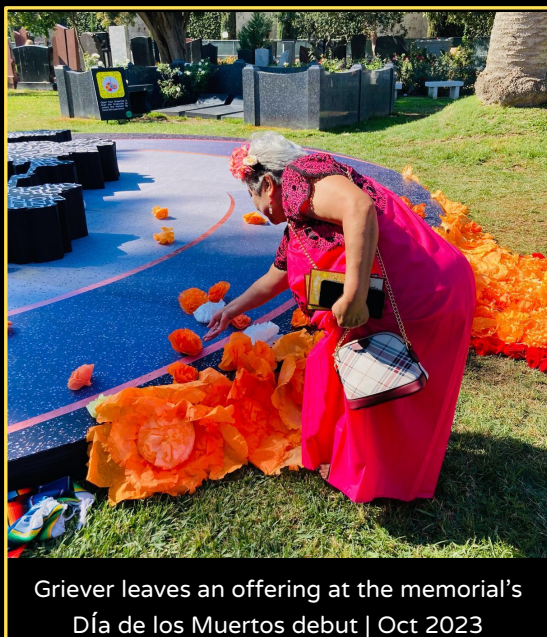

What do you think of the memorial?

Kaitlyn Urenda-Culpepper

It's super epic! Beautiful! It makes me feel very proud, and heard.

Physical & digital components are customizable

We are creating the world's largest memorial

MARKED BY COVID'S
MEMORIAL MATRIX

Our crowdsourced map and timeline of "by-the-people" memorialization expose the need for formal recognition

MARKED BY COVID'S
MEMORIAL MATRIX

Submit Search Memorial Map Donate Resources

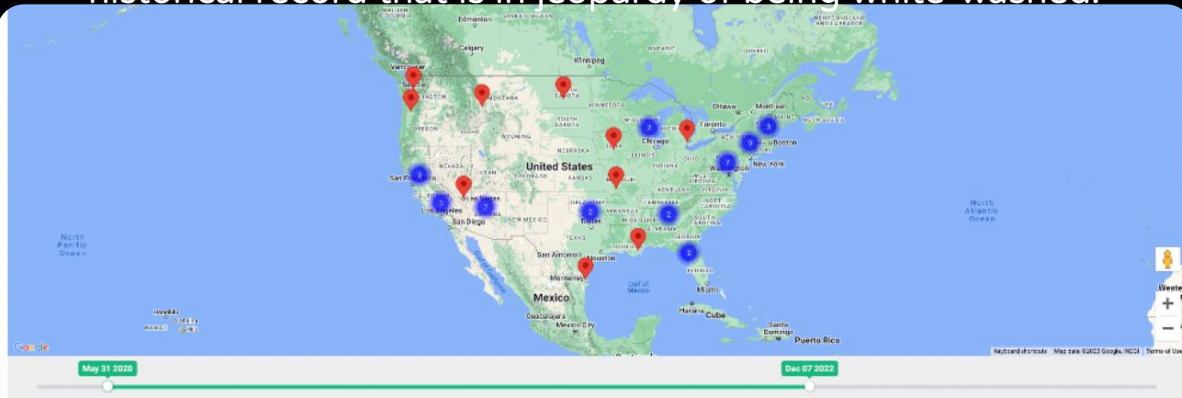

Crowd-sourced online library of Covid memorials and remembrances.

This includes tangible memorial sites and structures, temporary sites and installations, vigils, performances, and virtual memorials.

Recording acts of Covid remembrance to set straight the historical record that is in jeopardy of being white-washed.

Featured Memorials

Stitching The Situation

Memorial Drive, Belle Isle Detr...

Gallier Hall Memorial (Lafayette...

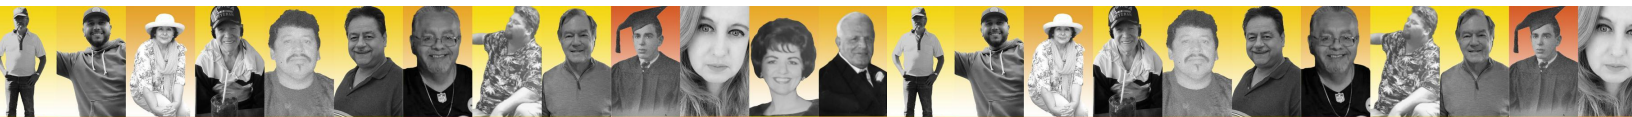

Zip Code Memory Project

Dia De Los Muertos Xicago (2...

We face our history together.
We bear witness to prevent another tragedy.

MARK OUR LOSSES

Donate

Sign Up

MarkedByCovid.com | info@MarkedByCovid.com

