Treasurer John Chiang and LA Community Leaders Fight Unforeseen Move to Dump Affordable Housing

LOS ANGELES – With Angelenos and the rest of the state facing the worst shortage in affordable housing in memory, Treasurer John Chiang plans to call out the owners of a housing complex who are attempting to prematurely drop affordable housing units for which they have already accepted taxpayer support.

When: 10 a.m. on Wednesday, December 21, 2016

Where: 15400 Sherman Way, Van Nuys, California.

Who: State Treasurer John Chiang, Los Angeles community leaders and housing officials.

What: News conference to release details involving an attempt to end affordable housing for dozens of Los Angelenos.
