Treasurer Chiang and AARP Urge US Senators to Vote 'No' on Resolution Threatening Retirement Security for 6.8 Million Californians

SACRAMENTO – State Treasurer John Chiang will join AARP California and others to urge U.S. Senators to vote “No” on House Joint Resolution 66 and “Yes” to retirement security for up to 55 million Americans.

When: Monday, March 6

Time: 11:30am to 12:30 pm

Where: Pasadena Hilton, Pacific Room
168 South Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California, 91101

What: To raise awareness about HJR 66, a resolution that threatens to hinder the implementation of California’s Secure Choice Retirement Savings Program. Secure Choice, signed in law last year by Gov. Jerry Brown, will provide up to 6.8 million private sector workers who currently do not have an employer-provided plan with a retirement savings account.

Who:
State Treasurer John Chiang
AARP California State Director Nancy McPherson
National Council of La Raza
California Business Majority
Nearly 100 AARP members
